

Example: Maryland Resisting Arrest

- Maryland Code, Crim. Law §9-408
 - (a) . . .
 - (b) A person may not intentionally:
 - (1) resist a lawful arrest; or
 - (2) interfere with an individual who the person has reason to know is a police officer who is making or attempting to make a lawful arrest or detention of another person.

