

I wish to show my support for a retroactive amendment reducing the sentencing guideline ranges by at least two points for first time offenders with zero criminal history points. Under no circumstances should a first time offender receive a life sentence without parole or be categorized with those that have committed prior crimes. This amendment must be made retroactive to eliminate this disparity.

W

Weldon Long, Author
*The Upside of Fear &
The Power of Consistency*
A NYT & WSJ Bestseller
www.WeldonLong.com

