Commission Resources for:
Grouping Multiple Counts

Decision Tree

Follow the prompts of this Decision Tree to determine how to group multiple counts of convictions to arrive at a final offense level.

eLearning

This eLearning module demonstrates application of the grouping rules following the process outlined in the Decision Tree.

Podcasts

Episode 4: Grouping of Multiple Counts
This podcast will review grouping principles for offenses under the same guidelines under USSG §3D1.2(d).

Episode 5: Grouping Drugs, Robbery, & Burglary
This podcast will cover grouping under USSG §3D1.2(c) using an example from a real helpline call involving drugs, a robbery, and burglary.

Episode 6: Grouping in Child Pornography Production Cases
This podcast will review grouping principles for multiple counts of production of child pornography offenses.

Episode 11: More Grouping in Child Pornography Production Cases
Can you group counts involving the same victim? Using the Multiple Counts Decision Tree, we will discuss how multiple counts involving the same victim will group.

Episode 23, Part 4: Grouping of Multiple Counts
Why not just add units when I have multiple counts of conviction? Because that's not how the grouping rules work! Learn how to follow the Decision Tree to find the correct answers every time.

Quick Reference Guides

This one-pager highlights key points about multiple counts.

Use this document to learn more about keys to grouping under §3D1.2(a)-(d).

www.ussc.gov   @theusscgov   HelpLine   training@ussc.gov

This communication is produced and disseminated at U.S. taxpayer expense.