

COMMISSION RESOURCES FOR

Criminal History

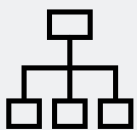

eLearning

Basic Criminal History

This eLearning module introduces the criminal history rules used to apply the federal sentencing guidelines. This program emphasizes real-world scenarios to better illustrate the application of the criminal history rules.

Criminal History: Assigning Points for Multiple Prior Sentences

This eLearning module demonstrates how to apply §4A1.2(a)(2).

Quick Reference Documents

These documents address frequent pitfalls in the application of Criminal History rules, including treatment of multiple prior sentences, how to handle a single sentence with multiple crimes of violence, and special rules for revocations.

Primer

This primer provides a general overview of the sentencing guidelines and statutes relevant to application of Chapter Four of the Guidelines Manual (Criminal History and Criminal Livelihood). Although the primer identifies some of the key cases and concepts, it is not a comprehensive compilation of authority nor intended to be a substitute for independent research and analysis of primary sources.

Podcasts

Episode 1: Revocations and Criminal History Points

Episode 10: Interplay of Multiple Revocations on Criminal History Scores

Episode 16: How Do Revocations Impact Career Offender Status?

Series 23, Part 2: Criminal History Implications for Immigration, Career Offender, Safety Valve; & First Step Act

Episode 29: 2023 Amendments to the Guidelines Manual relating to criminal history

